Introducing our Judge in her own words: "Gill Pearce Gudger" - PEARKIM

My first cocker spaniel was in 1983, a black & white dog puppy from a litter sired by Styvechale Schadeus - from that day I was hooked on Cocker Spaniels.

Early 1984, I introduced myself to the late Phyllis Masters (Styvechale) who became my mentor, and under her guidance I gained her knowledge and involvement of cocker spaniels of all colours – solid, parti- and tri-coloureds – and in doing so this broadened my interests in the various colours of our lovely breed and became involved/attended in breed club activities and competing at breed/general Open and Championship shows.

I bred my first litter in 1990 under the PEARKIM affix and from this litter I retained my first PEARKIM orange roan. From that breed line I have bred and owned several generations of orange roans, as well as black & whites and blue roan cocker spaniels.

Aside from showing, I have also trained some of my PEARKIM cocker spaniels for gundog work and have competed in various spaniel working events achieving many good results. It gives me great pleasure to see my PEARKIM cocker spaniels working when flushing or retrieving game, and from their bustling in hedgerows with nose down and wagging tails, they seem to enjoy it too.

I have been judging cocker spaniels since 1994 and have honoured Open Show judging appointments for the following breed clubs: Coventry Cocker Spaniel Club (January 2011) ; West of England (June 2012) ; East of Scotland Cocker Spaniel Club (September 2013) ; Cocker Spaniel Club of Lancashire (February 2015). In October 2015, I was enlisted to the A3 lists of judges by The Cocker Spaniel Club and The Cocker Spaniel Breed Council for judging at championship level. Since then, after approval by The Kennel Club (UK), I have awarded Challenge Certificates in the breed at the following Championship shows: August 2017 - National Gundog Association (Dogs) October 2019 - West of England Cocker Spaniel Club (Bitches) November 2019 - Rotherham & District Cocker Spaniel Club (Dogs).

I have honoured the following overseas judging appointments: June 2015 - Breed Speciality show (Dogs) for Cocker Spaniels (English) - Finnish Kennel Club (SKL-FKK) July 2016 - Vastra Cockerklubben (both sexes) – Sweden August 2016 - Czech Republic Speciall Cocker Show.
