Our Judge: Rita Pickersgill (Maolruadhan)

It was through my husband Tom's desire to share our life with an Irish Setter that we both found our second love in life, Seamus, purchased from Miss. Judy Russell in 1974. He taught us so much about our wonderful breed, a real character to live with and life was never dull, he was so intelligent and such a Jester.

Seamus paved the way for Kerry, Rosie and Flynn from Judy, but it wasn't until 1989 that I had time for showing as a hobby and asked Judy for a show quality puppy from her next litter. Ballywestow Fleet and Forego came to join us in the July.

Being a complete novice, I came to realise in time how fortunate I was to have such beautiful puppies to start my new hobby. I had much to learn and as did they and we were so delighted when brother and sister both gained their U.K. titles. It was a dream come true.

Erin (Fleet) had two small litters and from the second, sired by Sh. Ch. Shenanagin Stockbroker, Maolruadhan Starstruck (Shamrock) and her litter brother stayed with us and Shamrock followed in her parents footsteps and was fortunate to also gain her U.K. title in 2001.

I was first invited to judge in 1994, awarding CC's for the first time in 2010. Whilst I find judging a fulfilling experience, it is also so humbling as each dog present is unique and has something wonderful to offer their proud owner.

I have been living in Ireland for the past eight years. I deem it a great honour to be officiating at the Irish Red Setter Club Championship Show and so look forward to being with you on the day.

Rita Pickersgill.

Ring Etiquette/Code of Conduct

We are very privileged to be the owners, breeders and exhibitors of the very wonderful Irish Setter. As such, we need to remember that we are only the caretakers of this beautiful, intelligent breed and we must do our utmost to make sure that it leaves our hands as a stronger, healthier breed than we found it.

- Dog Shows are a hobby and should be enjoyed by everyone, win or lose.
- Exhibitors commit themselves to values of fair play, honesty, courtesy and vigorous competition, as well as winning and losing with grace.
- We should all have respect for ourselves, our judge and our fellow exhibitors.
- Nastiness and sarcastic remarks have no place in or out of the show ring.
- Always leave the entrance to the ring clear of chairs, cages etc.
- Stay near your ring so that you will have your dog ready to go into his class when called.
- Pay attention to your dog. You only have a short time for your dog to impress the judge, use it wisely.
- If the judge asks the class to move around the ring together, check that the other exhibitors are ready before moving off.
- Always keep a reasonable distance between your dog and the one in front, whether standing or moving.
- Always stand your dog in line with the other exhibits.
- There is no rule against exhibiting a bitch in season. However, it is not recommended for the bitch's health, comfort and safety and is certainly not appreciated by other exhibitors.
- If your dog is placed in his class, always thank the Steward for your prize card or rosette and always congratulate the winner, be it in a class, a Group or Best in Show.
- Always remember that whether your dog wins or not, you will always take the best dog home.
