OUR JUDGE

Mr. Tal Yaffe (Israel)

I truly have the love of dogs embedded in my heart. A local Collie bitch was the first pure-bred dog to enter my house, as well as my soul – and the passion remains to be seen. Soon enough I imported from the UK a young male in order to fulfill my passion and goals. I breed Rough Collies under the prefix of HATISHMA COLLIE for the last decade and judge Collies for almost 3 years. Becoming a judge was made by enthusiasm and progressive ideas, out of a long term vision of my aims, and I feel that they are to the benefit of the Rough Collie Breed. As a judge, I was judging in Israel and abroad, while practicing at rings of many European countries such as Finland, Sweden, Netherlands, Croatia, Slovenia, Greece, and Italy.

Before I became a judge, I was handling numerous breeds as a professional handler in Israel; as more people and breeds I worked with – as more devotion I found to the elegant great beauty and character of the true Collie. However, handling professionally was providing me keen knowledge and wider perspective of not only the Rough Collie, but also of other breeds, as well as the better ability to recognize both the faults and virtues of my own animals, and those belonging to other exhibitors, and how pedigrees may enhance my own breeding program. Most importantly, I found these tools most essential in my opinion, as being able to recognize the failings in your own stock is as valuable as to appreciate their virtues, in order to honestly improve our beloved breed of Collie.

I look forward to visiting your country and to see your true Collies,

Tal Yaffe,

Hatishma Collie Kennel, ISRAEL.
