The Irish Great Dane Club

Annual Breed Open Show 2017

The officers and committee of The Irish Great Dane Club would like to thank the Rough Collie Club of Ireland for allowing us to host our Annual Breed Open show in conjunction with their show.

This year we have Ms. P. Henshall

We will have Rosettes for All Classes, and the club trophies will be on offer to current club members. List of trophies will be appear in the Catalogue

Please note Champions cannot compete at our Breed Open Show, but may enter the Champions Stakes with Judge Mr. J. Anderson

Introduction to our judge: Ms. P. Henshall (Calchas)

I bought my first Great Dane in 1979 – and wondered “what have I done” – she followed me everywhere. I sort advice and eventually attended the local dog training-show group in the village hall. I made some great friends and was invited to attend the local limit show – she won BIS – I was hooked.

I went on to own and show some memorable dogs, in all the colours. Those were the days when there were upwards of 30 dogs per class and to be pulled out for consideration was an honour – to be placed elation.

I decided that Harlequin was the colour for me, and I had my first litter in 1988 from my foundation bitch Helmlake Present Fashion. From this beautiful girl came the Calchas Line.

I am currently showing Calchas Willobee Wiseman and Calchas Wincy Willis, with two puppies waiting in the wings.

I am Chairman for the Ruthin Canine Society – we run show training and socialization classes each Wednesday evening, and a 200+ Open show annually. We offer Kennel Club approved seminars and social events throughout the year.
