Introducing our judge Ildiko Muzslai (Double Scotch)

Ildiko's first encounter with our breed was in 1972 upon first meeting her husband, Peter. In 1985 they acquired their first Rough Collie together and began exhibiting. Early on they also began an interest in the Bearded Collie, and the Prefix of Double Scotch was born from this reference to two Scottish Breeds. An important female came from their second homebred litter, Ch Beauty Baby Gold Double Scotch (and the connection here to our other Judge Peter Fricke, as "Beauty Baby" was a daughter of Ch Lynway Seldom Sober. She is behind many winners which followed, Ildiko and husband Peter have bred numerous National, International Champions and European and World Winners. Much time has also been spent giving back to their hobby with work on the Hungarian British & Australian Sheepdog Club. Both have of course also been FCI judges for many years. We are delighted to welcome Ildiko to Ireland and wish her a most enjoyable visit.
